FORGER SENTENCED TO FIVE-YEAR TERM

Weatherholtz Soon Will Be Taken to Penitentiary—New Railway Station in Use.

Harrisonburg, Va., October 12.—Harley E. Weatherholtz, the young Rock-hill man, who forged two checks on two Harrisonburg banks, and who was indicted several weeks ago by the grand jury, has made a complete confession of his guilt and throwing himself upon the mercy of the court, has been sentenced to five years in the State Penitentiary in Richmond. About two months ago Weatherholtz worked a clever trick on two bank tellers, taking $120 away with him. Later a detective from Baltimore more secretly came to the aid of the local authorities. At the last moment the prisoner broke down and made a clean breast of the affair. The money was found concealed in his barn in the extreme northern section of the county. He told of his wife and small children, saying that their poverty-stricken condition forced him to crime. He will be taken to Richmond in a few days.

The new $30,000 Chesapeake Western Railway Station, which W. E. D. Stokes, the New York millionaire owner of the road, gave to the town of Harrisonburg, has been thrown open to the public, and now Harrisonburg has practically one union station into which trains of the Chesapeake Western, the Southern and the Baltimore and Ohio Roads run daily. The Baltimore and Ohio station is only 100 yards north of the new Stokes structure. Mr. Stokes also built a connecting line of a mile in length, and made other improvements, all costing about $50,000. Mr. Stokes makes frequent visits of inspection here, and is much interested in the development of the section.

Unable to prove that Nellie Ralls, the colored woman who has a white husband, possesses as much as one-sixteenth negro blood in her veins, Commonwealth Attorney General J. C. Bickering, Jr., has been compelled to free the woman and her husband, William N. Webster, who were married in Washington in August, and who were arrested here a day or two later, and forwarded to the charge of violating the miscegenation laws of Virginia. The couple claimed that they were merely visiting here while en route to another State, where intermarriage between the races is not a crime. A peculiar phase of the case is that, while the woman cannot be prosecuted for lack of proof, yet she was not recognized in Virginia, and that if they remain in the State they will be prosecuted for illegally living together.

The woman, who is a native of the first husband, who is a well-known negro. Her parents are old colored residents.

Eva Click, twelve years old, dropped her ring through a hole in the glass of the door of her home near Bridgewater, and when she ran her arm into the opening to recover the ring, a good-sized snake, which lay hidden in the wall, bit her. The physician gave hurried attendance, and the girl will get well.

Effect Officers for Coming Year

Teachers of Lancaster Reorganize County Association—Other Northern Neck News.

Lancaster, Va., October 12.—The teachers of the white public schools of Lancaster met here yesterday and reorganized the County Teachers' Association for the coming year. The following officers for the ensuing year: G. A. Valden, president; Miss Margaret Henderson, Miss Alice Chilton and Miss Sarah Dunn, vice-presidents. Miss Sarah Dunn, secretary and treasurer. Miss Margaret Henderson was appointed delegate to the State Teachers' Association that will meet in Lynchburg the last week in November.

The annual meeting of the teachers of the county was held at the Lancaster School for Girls, near Kilmarnock, on the last day of October. The attendance was unusually large, nearly every white teacher in the county being present. Superintendent Lewis was present and gave assistance in shaping plans for the coming year.

During the past week Superintendent Newton held teachers' meetings in Westmoreland and Richmond counties, and reorganized the teachers' association in these counties. Evan R. Chesterman, secretary to the State Board of Education, delivered interesting and instructive addresses to the teachers of both these counties.

The menhaden industry was very poor during the past week, and the Wharton Fisheries Company, on Indian Creek, withdrew all its steamers. Two or three weeks remain in which the menhaden fishermen may expect to continue operation, and not much can be done in this time to repair the loss or add to the slender profits of the past season. While fertilizer fish have been scarce, the prices for the oil and bones as may lawfully come before the meeting, and for the purpose of considering all action heretofore taken by the stockholders by and through their duly constituted committees, or by the executive committee of the company, which may be submitted to the stockholders, shall be held at the office of the company in the city of Richmond, Va., on TUESDAY, October 15, 1913, at 11 o'clock A. M.
